

2017 WI-ATSA FALL FORUM

Join WIATSA and colleagues on November 10th and 11th at the Heidel House Resort and Spa in beautiful Green Lake Wisconsin for an exciting opportunity to earn 8 CEUs for only $115, with all meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner) included! Presentations will be conducted in a relaxed environment with panels and interactive discussions to allow attendees to ask questions and participate in thoughtful discussions. Wind down Friday evening and mingle with your colleagues around the bonfire.

Register online at

<http://www.wiatsa.org/register/>

Presentations include the following

- Penile Plethysmograph and Sexual Deviance, David Thornton
- Resilience, Burn Out and Transference for Treatment Providers, Eddie Scanlan and Susan McDonald
- Allegiance Bias and Outcome Anxiety for Evaluators, Patti Coffey, Bob Barahal
- What Constitutes Treatment Progress, Ernie Marshall, David Thornton, Gina Ambroziak
- Trauma Informed Care, Mary Hanson
- Leadership and Supervision, Leslie Barfknecht
- Facilitating Environmental Opportunities for Self-Determination, Jacob Schuldies
- Mindful movement - This optional bonus session will allow you to put self-care into action as you try out guided mindful movements. Experience mindful walking, as well as basic yoga, tai chi, and Qi Gong practice.

November 10th & 11th

Friday: 11 am - 4:30 pm
Saturday: 9 am - 2:45 pm

Register early and take advantage of discounted resort and spa services (20% off regular priced 50-minute services and free access to the spa with any service). Learn, connect with colleagues, and de-stress before the onset of the holiday season.

CEUs Sponsored By
SOCPCN
SOCPCN

Rooms are available at a special WIATSA price of $79.

Book rooms by contacting Heidel House at (800) 444-2812

Indicate you are part of WI-ATSA to get the discount.

<http://www.heidelhouse.com/>